

Safeguarding Temporary Measures

Temporary Measures

Measures may include, but are not limited to:

- altering training schedules
- providing or requiring chaperones
- implementing contact limitations
- implementing measures prohibiting one-on-one interactions
- suspensions from participation in some or all aspects of sport activity

Measures & Sanctions

Written Warning	An official, written notice and formal admonition that a Participant has violated the Policy and that more severe sanctions will result should the Participant be involved in other violations.
Probation	A specified period of time during which, should any further violations of the Policy occur during the probationary period, will result in additional disciplinary measures, likely including a period of suspension or permanent ineligibility. This sanction can also include loss of privileges or other conditions, restrictions, or requirements.
Suspension	Suspension for a specified period of time from participation, in any capacity, in any program, activity, event, or under the jurisdiction of the SRU its affiliates/members. A suspension may include restrictions or prohibitions from some types of participation but allowing participation in other capacities. A suspended Participant is eligible to return to sport after the suspension lapses, but reinstatement may be subject to certain restrictions or contingent upon the Participant satisfying specific conditions noted at the time of suspension.
Permanent Ineligibility	Permanent ineligibility to participate, in any capacity, in any program, activity, event under the jurisdiction of SRU or its affiliates/members.
Others	other sanctions for Prohibited Conduct, including, but not limited to, other loss of privileges, no contact directives, requirement to complete educational or other programs, or other restrictions or conditions as deemed necessary or appropriate.
